Headline:

Sunshine and showers on Friday, potentially turning thundery.

Today:

After a largely cloudy start, and a damp one for some too, cloud will gradually break in the afternoon to leave a mixture of sunny spells and showers. These could be heavy and locally thundery at times. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:

Some scattered showers will continue through the evening. Overnight drier and clearer conditions will develop further south, although some showers continuing in the north. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Saturday:

Sunny spells and scattered showers for the north of the region. Elsewhere staying largely dry with long periods of sunshine. Feeling warm. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:

Becoming settled from Sunday to Tuesday, staying largely dry throughout with light winds, plenty of sunshine, and feeling warm. Risk of some rain pushing into the south at times.
